Career Professionals of Canada (“CPC”) is a member-run, volunteer-driven social enterprise. We are a leading national association for career development practitioners supporting the Canadian labour market. Our mission is to inspire and enable practitioners across Canada in advancing career, business, and professional development goals. Working together, we:

- Promote quality, ethics, and expertise within the field.
- Raise the capabilities, profile, and visibility of our members.
- Help members develop meaningful professional relationships.
- Encourage members in advancing the goals of their career service.
- Give back to the Canadian career community and labour market.

CERTIFICATIONS

<http://careerprocanada.ca/certification/>

Career Professionals of Canada (CPC) is setting the Canadian standard for excellence in our field. CPC's Certification Program validates and recognizes the expertise of Canadian career practitioners in four competency areas.

By completing the CPC Certification Program, you're managing your own career. By earning certification, you show by example that you understand the importance of your own career development.

CPC certifications give you credibility. By displaying the logo and using the letters after your name, you demonstrate that you are an expert in your field. You can promote your CPC certifications in your resume, website, and advertising.

COURSES

ABSTRACT

Career Professionals of Canada (CPC) is a leading member-driven career services association. Our mandate is to enable Canadians to achieve their career goals by promoting quality, ethics, and expertise within the industry. Working together, we promote excellence in the Canadian careers industry!

Sharon Graham is founder and executive director.

Sharon Graham founded Career Professionals of Canada in 2004, setting the cornerstones for quality service, highest ethical standards, and provision of expert advice. As CPC's executive director, she ensures that the mandate of this national organization is upheld with integrity. Sharon actively oversees and facilitates all aspects of the organization, including the administration of key programs.

Career Professionals of Canada is a social enterprise.

As a social enterprise, we work for the common good of our members and career professionals who support the Canadian labour market. Our goal is to maximize social impact. Our objective is to help members share and grow through volunteerism, collaboration, and interaction. Our members actively engage in CPC's programs to build relationships, enhance services, support clients, and make positive contributions to our country. We work together for career success!

Community Involvement at Career Professionals of Canada.

Members of CPC become part of a caring and sharing community of Career Professionals. Members have access to various forums and venues for relationship building and collaboration. We are all on a unique career development path and we are here to help each other learn and grow.

Volunteerism at Career Professionals of Canada.

Every CPC Member is important to the success of Career Professionals of Canada. Members have many opportunities to volunteer, network, brainstorm, interact, and co-create with colleagues. Everyone is valued and no commitment is too small. All of our members, mentors, and ambassadors are ready, willing, and able to help colleagues on their career development path.
